Section 1: Description

Lab 03: Study Plan

This document is meant to demonstrate and plan out a strategy to manage both time and studies. Hence the name, study plan. This helps visualizing important dates and what they are, all done to lead to a better path of time management.

As seen below, I have listed all assignments, tests and/or exams from all courses I have this semester. Though not explicitly defined I have five courses of which: Math Concepts, Intro to Computer Science, World Views, Game Programming 1 as well as Programming 1.
